Webinar: Fireside chat - getting the finance house in order

Finance leaders and managers in construction and related industries have had a challenging year navigating volatile market conditions while managing increasing compliance requirements.

Real Estate partner Kristy Dorney, along with Sian Sinclair from Grant Thornton, recently participated in a webinar hosted by James Frayne from Felix: Getting the Finance House in Order.

In this webinar, the panel chat about all things finance, risk, and compliance for the building, construction, and engineering industries. Kristy and Sian share their knowledge about director identification, penalty notices, governance, contracting models, and project trust accounts.
